

El Camino High School Performing Arts Center Logo Contest

A group of dedicated parents, students, members of the community and San Juan School District personnel are intent on building a Performing Arts Center on the campus of El Camino High School. The proposed center will include a 500 seat theatre, rehearsal space and art gallery. We are now seeking logo designs from students or alumni El Camino that will become the signature symbol of the new center.

To enter the Performing Arts Center logo contest, print and complete the rules and regulations form and attach it with your art work.
