I am not...

Over the last few days, we have discussed who we ARE. Now we will make a statement about who we are NOT. In the style of India Arie's video, we will each create a four line stanza outlining who we are not. Here is an example.

I am not my sister
I am not her work ethic
I am not her outlook
I am not my father's favorite child

You can choose anything you want. It does not need to be a person. You can use items (report card, cell phone, iPod, T-shirt, piercings), abstract concepts (attitude, religion), or people as shown in the example. Please be as thoughtful as possible.

Your group will have ONE piece of paper with ALL stanzas together as one.
Please put all names on the paper!
