

The Family and Community Engagement Department presents:

Co-Parenting

Co-Parenting is a 6-week parent skill building program designed specifically for families raising children in more than one household. This interactive course provides parents/guardians useful strategies and tools to minimize conflicts for children and adults. This class meets the requirement for Family Court ordered Co-Parenting class.

Fall 2019 Class Dates:

September 16 - October 28

Mondays, 6:00 - 8:00 pm

Location:

Creekside Adult Center

2641 Kent Drive

Sacramento, CA 95821

SJUSD Families* - $25 (class material fee)
Non-SJUSD Families - $50 per individual or $75 for a couple (includes class materials)

Some scholarships available*

* Childcare and Translation Services available if requested in advance

 Please note: Separating/divorcing co-parents must attend separate sessions if they wish to take this San Juan Unified School District class. If your Co-parenting court order requires you to take a class with your children's other parent please contact the Family Court for a list of providers.

Register online at www.sanjuan.edu/familyed. For more information, contact the Family and Community Engagement Department at (916) 971-7929 or email sjusdfamilyeducation@sanjuan.edu

If you or your student/s need/s a disability-related modification or accommodation, including auxiliary aids or services, to participate in any program, service or activity offered to you, contact our office at least one week before the scheduled event so that we may make every reasonable effort to accommodate you.