

After taking notes on the defining characteristics of Zeus and Odysseus, you will now compare the two to help you define the archetypes of a God and of a Hero.

Characteristic #1: Abilities

1. A God and a Hero are similar in their abilities because both
2. A God and a Hero are different in their abilities because a God can _____, but a Hero can _____.

Characteristic #2: Character Traits

1. A God and a Hero are similar because both share the common character trait(s) of
2. A God and a Hero are different because a God is _____, but a Hero is _____.

Characteristic #3: Strengths

1. A God and a Hero are similar in their strengths because both
2. A God and a Hero are different in their strengths because a God _____, but a Hero _____.

Characteristic #4: Weaknesses

1. A God and a Hero are similar in their weaknesses because both
2. A God and a Hero are different in their weaknesses because a God _____, but a Hero _____.