Step in the Journey	Character: Katniss
Call to Adventure: How does the hero receive the call to adventure? What motivates him/her to accept the call?	Every year there is an event called the Hunger Games where a couple from each district is chosen to kill everyone they go against in the tournament. Katniss has a Sister, Prim Rose, who is chosen at an event called The Reaping , but Katniss volunteers in her place.
Refusal of the Call: At what point in the story does the hero refuse the call? What seems to hold him/her back? What is he afraid of?	This is the only step that does not apply to Katniss. Because she is a brave character, she sacrifices her own safety for her sister's and volunteers for the call .
Supernatural Aid: Is there a specific character who helps the hero understand the life situation or provides him/her with special training for the call?	A previous Survivor (and the only survivor) of the Hunger Games from District 12 is Haymitch Abernathy . He is Katniss and Peeta's mentor for the games. He will do his best to try and help them win the games and give them the best advice he has.
Crossing the Threshold: At what point in the story does the hero leave the familiar world and move into a new, unfamiliar circumstance?	Katniss crosses the threshold when she enters the Capitol . She is lavished with comfortable clothes and accommodations, as well as delicious food.
The Road of Trials: What specific challenges does the hero face?	Katniss has to go thorough many tests/trials in The Hunger Games. The tests begin during the training exercises where she has to prove her worth and the trials continue in the Arena . All alone initially, she escapes fire, has a conflict with tracker jackers, and combats multiple career tributes.
Innermost Cave: Where does the hero face his/her deepest fear? Where is the darkest evil present in the story? What metamorphosis does the hero go through?	Katniss and Rue make a plan and become allies, but something comes up and Rue is killed . This is a very emotional time for Katniss; Rue was like a sister to her. This scares Katniss into thinking this could have been Prim. This is her deepest fear, not being able to protect her sister.
Battle with the Dragon: Does the hero battle some kind of monster/nemesis? Does the hero have to face some inner demon?	The mutts were probably the most terrifying creation of the Capitol. These creatures were able to balance on their hind legs, jump very high, and had four-inch long razor-sharp claws. But worst of all, each of the mutts resembled one of the tributes who had died previously in the Games, including Rue.
The Ultimate Treasure: Does the hero receive some sort of gift, maybe find a solution to his/her problem?	Katniss and Peeta win the games . Katniss tricks the Capitol into letting two players win this year.
The Road Back: Once the hero decides to return home, does he/she flee from yet another danger?	Because two people won, and the Capitol / President Snow makes it clear that it / he doesn't like to be played.
Crossing the Return Threshold: At what point does the hero return to the known world? How has the hero changed since he/she began the journey?	Katniss now has to face the Capitol . This isn't very apparent yet, but she knows something is brewing. She knows the Capitol is corrupt, and they know she knows and now it's a waiting game for some one to strike.
Return with Elixir: Does the hero share his gift or knowledge in some way?	Katniss returns with a new life for her and her family. Although this new life gives her everything she could ever need or want in life, Katniss knows she has changed the world she lives in. She has become a symbol of rebellion for the districts, inspiring them to stand up against the Capitol . Her life means more now than it did before because she has become a voice for the people.
