

The Odyssey

MONDAY 4/15 – FRIDAY 4/19

- Book 1 + Book 2 Summary
- Books 3-4 Summaries + Book 5
- Books 6-8 Summaries + Book 9
- Book 10
- Book 11

MONDAY 4/22

Book 12

TUESDAY 4/23

Books 13-16 Summaries + Book 17

WEDNESDAY 4/24

Books 18-20 Summaries + Book 21

THURSDAY 4/25

Book 22

FRIDAY 4/27

Book 23 + Book 24 Summary

NAME: _____

The Odyssey

MONDAY 4/15 – FRIDAY 4/19

- Book 1 + Book 2 Summary
- Books 3-4 Summaries + Book 5
- Books 6-8 Summaries + Book 9
- Book 10
- Book 11

MONDAY 4/22

Book 12

TUESDAY 4/23

Books 13-16 Summaries + Book 17

WEDNESDAY 4/24

Books 18-20 Summaries + Book 21

THURSDAY 4/25

Book 22

FRIDAY 4/27

Book 23 + Book 24 Summary

NAME: _____

The Odyssey

MONDAY 4/15 – FRIDAY 4/19

- Book 1 + Book 2 Summary
- Books 3-4 Summaries + Book 5
- Books 6-8 Summaries + Book 9
- Book 10
- Book 11

MONDAY 4/22

Book 12

TUESDAY 4/23

Books 13-16 Summaries + Book 17

WEDNESDAY 4/24

Books 18-20 Summaries + Book 21

THURSDAY 4/25

Book 22

FRIDAY 4/27

Book 23 + Book 24 Summary

NAME: _____

ANNOTATIONS

Minimum Requirement: 3 of each type of annotation per reading day.

Questions

Highlight sentences or passages that you have questions about. Write questions in the margins. Questions can include, but are not limited to:

- (1) Areas that are confusing or troubling about the plot or character interactions
- (2) Unfamiliar vocabulary – Must look up and define
- (3) Allusions – Must look up and explain

Character Identification

As you read The Odyssey, highlight the names of major and minor characters or revealing passages about characters. Make notes in the margins about what the passage reveals about the character.

Literary Devices

Identify Literary Devices inside Homer's writing. Literary Devices can include, but are not limited to: Imagery, Figurative Language, Alliterations, Parallelism, Symbolism, Themes, Conflicts, Foreshadowing, Flashbacks, Tone, Ironies, etc.

Summary

Summarize important plot events in the margins. 1-sentence summaries are sufficient.

ANNOTATIONS

Minimum Requirement: 3 of each type of annotation per reading day.

Questions

Highlight sentences or passages that you have questions about. Write questions in the margins. Questions can include, but are not limited to:

- (7) Areas that are confusing or troubling about the plot or character interactions
- (8) Unfamiliar vocabulary – Must look up and define
- (9) Allusions – Must look up and explain

Character Identification

As you read The Odyssey, highlight the names of major and minor characters or revealing passages about characters. Make notes in the margins about what the passage reveals about the character.

Literary Devices

Identify Literary Devices inside Homer's writing. Literary Devices can include, but are not limited to: Imagery, Figurative Language, Alliterations, Parallelism, Symbolism, Themes, Conflicts, Foreshadowing, Flashbacks, Tone, Ironies, etc.

Summary

Summarize important plot events in the margins. 1-sentence summaries are sufficient.

ANNOTATIONS

Minimum Requirement: 3 of each type of annotation per reading day.

Questions

Highlight sentences or passages that you have questions about. Write questions in the margins. Questions can include, but are not limited to:

- (4) Areas that are confusing or troubling about the plot or character interactions
- (5) Unfamiliar vocabulary – Must look up and define
- (6) Allusions – Must look up and explain

Character Identification

As you read The Odyssey, highlight the names of major and minor characters or revealing passages about characters. Make notes in the margins about what the passage reveals about the character.

Literary Devices

Identify Literary Devices inside Homer's writing. Literary Devices can include, but are not limited to: Imagery, Figurative Language, Alliterations, Parallelism, Symbolism, Themes, Conflicts, Foreshadowing, Flashbacks, Tone, Ironies, etc.

Summary

Summarize important plot events in the margins. 1-sentence summaries are sufficient.