

May 2016

Picture Dictionary-This is a free online multilingual picture dictionary that includes English, French, German, Italian, and Spanish. Students can choose to see vocabulary by theme or by letter of the alphabet. Activities are provided to practice the vocabulary such as flashcards, word scrambles, and quizzes

<http://www.pdictionary.com/>

Starfall-This is a favorite site for many young children and their teachers! Students can learn their letters, sounds, and advance to reading simple stories.

<http://www.starfall.com/>

PBS Kids- Students choose a PBS show and then they can choose a variety of games that practice concepts such as literacy skills, science, social studies, citizenship, and technology. Teacher and parent resources are provided for each lesson. Some parent resources are translated into Spanish. This site is offered through the Public Broadcasting System.

<http://pbskids.org/>

Reading Eggs is an online beginning reading program. To get an account, you can go online and sign-up.

You can use a 14 day free trial for parents.

<http://readingeggs.com/>

Duolingo is a great site/app for learning English and/or any other language. I have not used Duolingo.

<https://www.duolingo.com/>

USA Learns-This site supports vocabulary development and life skills and is appropriate for middle school students and above. Students can choose from beginning, early intermediate and intermediate levels. Once you choose a level, you can view a video on a particular life skill area such as housing, health, and work related topics. After viewing the video, there are many interactive activities to practice the vocabulary and grammar concepts. It was conceived by the U.S. Department of Education.

<http://www.usalearns.org/>

Science videos, but only in English

<http://www.sciencekids.co.nz/videos/biology.html>

Strategies for Teaching Science to English Language Learners

<https://www.csun.edu/science/ref/language/teaching-ell.html>

Resources for teaching English Learners

<http://www.colorincolorado.org/ell-basics/ell-resources-grade>

This link to a free website with language support

<http://free-english-study.com/home/grammar-index.html>

<http://www.turtlediary.com/games/fifth-grade.html>

That website is in English only, preschool through 5th grade.

songs & videos – K-12 (free trial)

<https://www.flocabulary.com/>