Dress Code Policy Script

This year, El Camino High School student senate and staff reviewed the dress code policy. After much discussion it was decided to keep the dress code policy as is. In an effort to maximize every student’s opportunity to learn, and in the interests of fairness, we will be attempting to enforce this policy consistently.

As a “fundamental” high school and a school of choice, you are held to a high standard for academics, behavior, and in dress. Study the dress code poster linked on the homepage of the school website so that you may wake up every day for school, look in the mirror, and know whether or not you are meeting the dress code.

In general, ECFHS appropriate attire is workplace appropriate attire. In short, no excessively revealing clothing, no promoting or symbolizing illegal activities, and no gang-related attire.

Specific restrictions include but are not limited to:

No bare midriffs, shorts must have a 3” inseam, skirts must be longer than fingertip length, shirts must have at least a 1” strap with no plunging necklines. Whatever is on underneath a see-through shirt must meet the dress code.

Bandanas of any color are prohibited. Underwear must remain under. Clothing must not advertise for alcohol, drugs, racial, derogatory, violent, or sexually implicit imagery—for example, if your shirt prominently displays a woman with a dress code violation, you have a dress code violation.

Any student not in compliance with the dress code will be sent to the vice principals’ office where they must fix their violation before returning to class, and may receive disciplinary consequences as per the below:

1. Fix before sent back to class. Warning.
2. Fix before sent back to class. Detention.
3. Fix before sent back to class. Two detentions.
4. Fix before sent back to class. Saturday school.
5. One day home suspension.
6. Two days home suspension.
7. Etc.
